PLY YOU NEXT SUNDAY.

YOU CAN COMPETE. BUT ORDER YOUR "SUNDAY WORLD" AT ONCE, OR YOUR NEWSDEALER MAY BE UNABLE TO SUPcelorld.

PRICE ONE CENT.

NEW YORK, FRIDAY, OCTOBER 11, 1889.

PRICE ONE CENT

IN GREATER PERIL.

The City of New York Shifted Into a More Dangerous Position.

Twelve Tugs Work in Vain To-Day to Gat Her Off.

Her Stern Exposed to the Full Force of the Waves.

Steerage Passengers Landed—Their Sufferings from Fire and Cold.

(SPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD.) BANDY HOOR. Oct. 11.—Another attempt was made this morning to haul the City of New York from her sticky resting place in Gedney's Channel, but like the rest it proved ineffectual, and the steamer is still hard and fast aground. This morning's work, however, leaves the steamer in a far more dangerous position than she has heretofore occupied.

All of the tugs which helped in the work lasnight anchored in the Horseshoe in readiness to make another trial this morning. At 7 o'clock Capt. Dave Roach, on the power ful sea-going tug Vulcan, gave the signal to the rest of the fleet to proceed to sea. In ten minutes the rest of the tugs and steamers were on their way. They passed Buoy 5, off the point of the Hook, in single file, with the Vulcan in front.

Following came the Edwin M. Millard, the Inman Company's private tag: the Lewis Pulver, the John J. Smith, the Emperor, the sidewheeler George Starr, the eide-wheeler John E. wheeler George Starr, the side-wheeler John E. Moore, the side-wheeler William Fletcher, the wrecking-tux C. W. Morse and the tug Cheney. At 8 o'clock all of the tugs and steamers surrounding the steamer, and seemed to be adopting different tactics from the work of yesteriay.

Every hawser was attached to the stern of the vessel, and under their united tugging the stern of the huge vessel swing slowly around to the north and in clear water.

When she finally headed about southeast she stopped and the tugs could not budge her another inch.

stopped and the tugs could 'not budge her another inch.

At 9 olonok two more tugs passed out and went to the assistance of their puffing sisters.

At 9, 10, high water, another trial was made by the twelve tugs and steamers, but they could not budge the 'teamer.

They persisted, however, for half an hour longer. Then they stopped tugging.

It looked at the time as though they had given up the attempt.

At 19 o clock the tugs gave it up and steamed in towards the Horseshoe. Two lighters went out and began to take carge from the steamer.

This will lighten her considerably, and it is probable that the steamer will be hauled off towards.

The swinging around of her stern leaves her in a very dangerous position. Should a sea arise the steamer will be badly strained and injured.

At the office of the Inman line only scanty information was received this morning about the City of New York.

The steerage passengers were brought to the city, landing at the Red Star dock in Hoboken at 1,30 o'clock this morning.

These poor creatures suffered terribly on the voyage over. Their trip was one constant privation. voltage over. Their trip was one constant privation.

For twelve hours they were nearly roasted to death by the heat from the fire, which broke death by the heat from the fire, which broke out in the coal bunkers, and last night they were packed like wheep on two miserable little steambeats without a particle of shelter.

The only inclosed places on the George Starr and the William Fletcher are the pilot-houses. On the upper and lower decks everything is open, and the wind had a clean sweep.

Into these pilot-houses crowded the Custom-House officers and male passengers, while thinly clad women and children, many of them ill, were forced to face the bitter cold blasts outside.

The immigrants, on arrival, were transferred Castle Garden. There were nearly five hundred of them.

The real cause of the steamer's sliding on the mud was the fact that just before reaching the channel a pilot-beat flashed a light right in front of the steamer. The pilot ported his helm sharply and then endeavored to bring her back on her course. The vessel did not act quickly enough and she slid on the mud.

JUDGE MONELL WORSE.

He Suffers a Relapse, and Is New in Critical Condition.

Civil Justice Monell is reported to have suffered a relapse in his present illness.

His condition is now said to be very critical, and he may not survive through the night.

The Quotations.

American Cotton Oil	4154	4.034	- 27
Atch., Too, & Santa Fe	2036	12744	- 26
Canadian Pacific	009	(31)94	131
Central Paritie	3496	349a	- 34
Chesapeake & Ohio	2499	25-5-54	104
Chesapeake & Onio 1st pfd	6456	11-5-74	.09
Chesapeaks & Ohio 2d pfd	9490	サビザ	- 93
Chicago Gas Trust	. 2024	- 011224	- 91
Chic., Burl & Quincy	10794	1.0724	10
Chicago & Northwest	1115	11119	111
Chicago & Northwest pret	1213	12119	+3/
Chie. Mil. & St. Paul	9642	6662	- 24
Chic. & Lastern III. prd	6772	14.7.1	- 333
Ciev., Cin., Chie. & St. L	7352	7.542	7.
Clove. Cin., Chic & St. Louis pfd	9982	101144	304
Del., Lack & Western	14412	1444	14
Denver & Rio Grande Western	16	16	-14
Den., Tex. & Fort Worth	21%	2744	631
Lake Erie & Western pfd	64%	15454	6
Louisville & Nachville	. HOM:	- NUN	-71
Manhattun onsoi	105	105	10
Missouri Pagitic	7134	7.1.10	437
Nat. Lead Trust New Jersey Central	1274	4 35 Sec.	265
Wast Vork Central	107	17,772	47
New York Central. N. Y. & New England N. Y. Lake Erse & Western	44	40	44
N. Y. Lake Erse & Western	2014	121414	- 33
N. Y., Laun Erie & Western pid	70	70	71
N. Y., Susq & Western	834	8114	1
Northern Pacific Pfd	213	33	3:
Northern Pacific pfd	7,526	7316	70
Ohlo & Mina -slopi	1842	27776	- 22
Ontario & Western. Oregon Transcontinental	17578	3534	1.1
Oregen Short Line	1077M	2279	- 95
Partie Mail	11372	17772	45
Pipe Line certificates	10000	1000	141
Philadelphia a Beating	4.544	47.42	- 4
Bich, & West Point Ter.	2224	121294	- 9
Southern Cotton Oil	000	65	- 6
Southern Pacific	3596	3 4n	134
Bugar He per	N436	8416	- 8
Tenn. Coal & Iron	94	0.726	- 4
Wab. St. Louis & Pacific pfd	0.24	9.124	12
wat. St. Louis & Pacific pld	251.24	3199	- 1
Western Union Te egraph	2027	0.78	- 5
Wheeling & Lake Erie		12072	- 3
White Company of the	H1728	161538	14

To Readers.

You should order next Sunday's WORLD AT ONCE, or your newsdealer may not be able to supply in the Ninth Congress District.

of the Committee.

The Ex-President Having Declined, Amos Cummings Is Slated as Sunset Cox's Successor.

Many are the conjectures which have been made regarding the identity of the Democratic candidate for Congress in the Ninth District, to succeed the late Samuel Sullivan Cox, and all guesses are said to have fallen wide of the mark. The man who will carry the banner of the Democracy in this contest has been determined on, and is said to be no other than Amos J. Cum-Tammany Hall will hold its Convention next Thursday and will be the first to put him in the field, according to the best advices.

The Counties, it is asserted cannot fail to indorse Mr. Cummings's nomination at their Convention, to be held the following Monday, for he represented them in Co gress from the Sixth District during the last term. The fact has been kept very quiet, but the nomination was first offered to ex-President Grover Cleveland by a committee from Tam-many Hall, consisting of cz-Congressman W.

many Hall, consisting of cz. Congressman W. Bourke Ceckran, Assessor Edward Cahill and Charles Steckler.

Mr. Cockran was the spokesman, and pointed out to Mr. Cleveland the advantages which would accrue to the rarty by having him on the floor of Congress, where he might advocate the issues which he had made as President.

It was urged that Mr. Cox was a man of pre-eminent ability and more than national reputation, and Mr. Cleveland would be a worthy successor in these particulars.

tion, and Mr. Cleveland would be a worthy successor in these particulars.

The case of Precident Adams, who returned to Washington as a Congressman from Massachusetts, which was referred to by The World, was cited as a precedent for Mr. Cleveland.

Assessor Cahill acknowledged to an Evenino World reperter that he was one of the ambassadors of Tammany on this occasion, and said that Mr. Cleveland took the matter under terious consideration, and it is but recently that he signified his unwillingness to stand as a candidate. Mr. Julius Harberger, the President of the

Mr. Julius Harberger, the President of the Steckler Association, was at one time seriously considered for the nomination because of his great popularity in the district.

Although an uncompromising Tammany Hall man, it is claimed for him that he could carry with ease that stronghold of the County Democracy, the Twelfth Assembly District.

The boom for Col. William L. Brown assumed no mean proportions; but, as was stated in Tus Even no Would, his business cares would preclude the possibilities of the consideration of his name in connection with the nomination.

It is more than probable that Col. E. A. Mc-Alpin, the tobacco manufacturer, will be the Republican candidate.

Coroner Levy Trying To-Day to Clear Up the Gerlach Mystery,

Coroner Levy began an investigation this orenoon into the mysterious death of Louisa derlach, the young Staten Island girl, who was found dead in Bedford Park, in the Annexed District, with a bottle labelled carbolic acid by her side, on the morning of Sept. 30.

Fred. Bender, the cabinet-maker, who was was present. Mrs. Dora Gerlach, mother of Louisa, was also there. Coroner Levy told the jury that the remarkable mystery in the case was that the girl should have been found dying in such an out-of-the-bie mystery in the case was that the girl should have been found dying in such an out-of-the-way piace so far from her home, especially in view of what would be shown to have taken place the night before.

Deputy Coroner Jenkins, who made a postmortem examination of the body of Miss Gerisch, gave the opinion that she "committed sucide by taking carbolic acid poison during mental aberration."

Thomas Murphy, a policeman of the Highbridge Predict, testified that his attention was first called to Miss Gerisch about $A. M., Sept. 30, by a boy, who said she was dying, at the corner of Bainbridge avenue and the Southern Bonievard.

He found her unconscious, and picked up a small bottle by her side which smelt strongly of carbolic acid.

He caused the removal of the young woman to the police station, where she died in about fifteen minutes afterwards. In the pocket of the girls dress was found a letter addressed to her and signed "C."

Bender, who said he was a married man with three children, was then called.

He testified that he first saw Lizzie last July while he was at work in De Jonge's house at Stanleton, S. L., when she firsted with and threw, kisses at hims.

She acted as if fascinated with him.

The night before she died they got on the train at Stanleton at 8.12 and arrived on this side at 9.15. Then they took an L train on the Third avenue line and rode to Houston attret, where they went to a Bówery misseum.

He afterwards took the girl to the Bowery Hotel, where he registered as Fred Brown and lady, and was assigned a room, where they remained all hight.

He left her at 6 A. M. and reached Herter Bros. shop, at Fifth avenue and Thirty-eighth street, at 0.55.

Coroner Levy said he would detain Bender until he produces withesses to prove his whereabouts from 6.50 a. M. until 9 a. M. on Sunday, Sent. 29.

until he produces witnesses to prove his where abouts from 5.30 A. M. until 9 A. M. on Sunday, Born in the Tomba. Frank and Susan Fulton, husband and wife, were committed to the Tombs some months ago for larceny. They are awaiting trial. Last evening Mrs. Fulton gave birth to a healthy baby girl. Both mother and child were doing well this morning.

CLEVELAND SAID NO. AGAIN IN COURT. THE GREAT TROT.

Tammany Offered Him Its Nomination This Time Mrs. Whitmore Pigures as a Harry Wilkes and Belle Hamlin to Meet Complainant.

Bourke Cockran the Spokesman She Charges Frederick Mason with Highway Robbery.

> A Woman with an Interesting Police Court Record.

The famous Annie Whitmore, who has been out of the Tombs since Oct. 2, again figures in a police court, but this time she is a complain-

Frederick Mason, a tough and shabby young mau of thirty years, who gave his address as 64 Dover street, Boston, and says he is a butcher, was held by Justice Gorman in Jefferson Market Police Court this morning in $2,500 bail to answer hefore the Grand Jury for highway rob-

Late last night pedestrians in Broadway, near Harrigan's Theatre, were startled by feminine shricks of "Help! police! thieves!" Then a man darted around the corner of Thirty-sixth street, closely pursued by a well-

Then a man darted around the corner of Thirty-sixth street, closely pursued by a well-dressed woman.

The man was caught at Thirty-seventh street and Eighth avenue by Policeman Lee, of the West Thirty-seventh street squad.

The woman came up panting for breath a moment after and said the man had darted out of a hallway in Broadway, clutched her throat with one hand and snatched her purses, with $49.87 in it, and a diamond pin worth $10.

In the scramble following her twenty-five-dollar ruby ring slipped off her finger into his hand.

These articles were found in Frederick Mason's pockets, and he told Justice Gorman that he had nothing to say except that he had used no violence.

Mrs. Whitmore has been known to the police as Mrs. Peck, Mrs. Walling, Mrs. Wallingford and by other names.

She told Justice Gorman sha was fifty years old, which is probably true, though on Ang. 31 she swore that she was threy-five, before Justice O'Reilly in the Tombs Folice Court.

On that day she was under arrest, charced by Lumber Inspector John J. Ryan with having robbed his vest of his gold watch while he sleet in her bed at her 'hotel,' 200 West Fifty-third street. She denied it all, but was held in $1,000 bail for the Grand Jury and went to the Tombs.

On Oct. 2 she was discharged, the Grand Jury having failed to indict her.

She declined to talk, but claimed that the was discharged from the Tombs.

in which deep green sath and black lace ngured conspicuously.

She declined to talk, but claimed that are was discharged from the Tomba because fivan ad-mitted that he had never owned a watch, and that his former stery was sworn to when he was that his former stery was sworn to when he was drunk.

She is the daughter of a Georgia planter, and ran away from home when fourteen years old and married Capt. Wallingford, from whom she obtained a divorce. She is said to have had six husbands since then, death and divorce freeling her as often as she liked.

She was a lobby jet at Washington at one time, and afterwards a claimant for over a million dollars against the Government. She was backed by President Johnson and the late Col. Iom Scott, of Pennsylvania, but did not succeed.

MGR. O'CONNELL HERE.

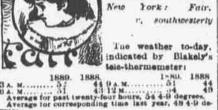

The Pope's Representative Arrives on the City of Rome To-Day.

The City of Rome, the third competitor in the riple race from the other side with the City of New York and the Teutonic, arrived off Sandy Hook at 2, 15 this morning. Among the saloon passengers was Mgr. D. J.

O'Connell, who comes here to represent the Pope at the general congress to be held in Balti-more in commemoration of the centennial an niversary of Roman Catholicism in this country. Mrs. Flynn Gets an Injunction.

Maurice B. Flynn's widow to-day obtained an injunction from Judge Andrews of the Supreme Court restraining George H. Field and James Martin, as assignee of the firm of Gny C. Hotch-kiss. Field & Co. from parting with or disposing of the property of the firm.

Fair ; Warmer ; Southwesterly Winds. WASHINGTON, D. C. Oct. 11. - Weather Indicatsons-For Eastern New York: Fair.

AUGUSTA, Me., Cct. 11.—Emmons Blaine and wife arrived from Bar Harbor yesterday afternoon. They will remain here two days and then return to Bar Harbor.

Many Dollars Have Been Laid on the Result.

at Fleetwood To-Day.

Both of the Famous Horses in Fine Condition.

This is the great day for Belle Hamlin and Harry Wilkes, the famous trotters, who are to race for $2,500 a side and $2,500 added money at Fleetwood Park.

The merits of the crack trotters have been

The merits of the crack trotters have been eagerly discussed by turfmen, and many dollars have been laid on each of them.

Belle is slightly a favorite, although it is said that Wilkes was not in his best shape when he was beaten by her at Buffsio, and that he has improved since.

The pretty mare is suffering from a slight cold, contracted during a light snowstorm in Buffsio ten days ago. This cold is not a serious drawback, the only noticeable symptoms being a loose cough and some hoarseness.

A number of sporting men visited the park yesterday to inspect the famous trotters and speculate on the results of the race to-day.

The early morning rain was hardly sufficient to make the track heavy, but should it continue and become heavier the prospects of a race will be decidedly slim.

Both horses were given a little exercise yesterday, but were kept at an easy gait.

Besides the great event, there are two more races on the programme, including a 2, 25 class trot and sweepstakes.

The 2, 25 will be the first on the programme, and following the first heat will come the initial heat between the two great trotters.

It is not expected that either Belle or Harry will break their records, which are 2, 12% and 2, 13½ respectively.

Shipwright Hawks Held Up by Two Men on Washington Street.

One of the most daring highway robberies which have occurred in this city for some time took place on Washington street early this morning.

The victim is William Hawks, a shipwright, of 635 Washington street. The man captured is Patrick Howard, a longshoreman, living at 444 Washington street. Officer Scanlon, of the Leonard street station, was patrolling Washington street at 2 o'clock this morning when suddenly the cry of "Murder! Murder!" rang out.

Bunning in the direction of the cries, the offi-dollars against the backed by President Johnson and the late Collows to the seed by President Johnson and the late Collows to the seed by President Johnson and the late Collows the seed by President Johnson and the late Collows the seed by President Johnson and the late Collows the seed by India and in Boston for blackmailing and horsesteshing and in this city for bigainy.

In 1885 was arrested for drunkenness in Brooklyn, and then she told the story of a marriage between herself and a Brooklyn engraver, who already had a wife and family. Both were tried and acquitted of bigamy, the man claiming that he was drugged into unconsciousness at the time of the cersmony.

Afterwards she figured as the woman who obtained the please of a wealthy and aged Philadelphian from a lunatic asylum, and then kept him in confinement for ransom. He notified his friends by dropping a note out of his window to the sidewalk, where a passer picked it by Dr.

Once she sued the Sixth Avenue Railroad because she had been ejected from the car after she had paid her fare, and this case was settled. Since her discharge, ten days ago, from the Browleh has been seen much in the Bowery and Park Row. She has moved away from the big Fifty-third street house, nobody knows sarks.

She told the police that she lived at the Gilsey She that there they know her not.

The procetrate man said, "Catch that man, he has robbed me."

Howard quictly submitted to arrest, but declared he was tunoccut. He was taken to the station-house and locked up.

Howard quictly submitted to arrest, but declared he was tunoccut. He was taken to the station-house and locked up.

Howard quictly submitted to arrest, but declared he was tunoccut. He was taken to the station-house and locked up.

Howard quictly submitted to arrest, but declared he was tunoccut. He was taken to the station-house and locked up.

Howard submitted to arrest, but declared he was tunoccut, the sation-house and locked up.

He was the summitted to arrest, but declared he was tunoccut, the sation-house a cer found a man covered with blood lying on the midewalk, and saw Howard quietly walking man.

Howard says he is this ty-two years old. He was arraigned at the fombs Police Court this morning, when he pleased not guilty to the charge.

Howe & Hummel, who appeared for the accused, demanded an examination, and Justice Hogan set it down for to-morrow morning. ACCUSED OF ROBBING THE SOCIETY.

An Ex-Treasurer of a Cabinet-Makers' Union Held for Grand Larceny.

Ludwig Witzka, of 26 Second avenue, the former Treasurer of Cabinet-Maker's Union No. 1, was remanded in the Essex Market Court this morning on a specific charge of the larceny of $50 from the Bociety.

That sum was appropriated to August Meyer, a sick member, who never received it.

When Conrad Schilling succeeded Witzka as Treasurer he discovered a shortage of $2,000 in the accounts, but Witzka's friends satisfied the Union by making a partial settlement.

ATTEMPTED SUICIDE IN THE TOMBS.

A Prisoner Charged with Larceny Tries to Hang Himself to the Cell Door.

Adam Lackschutch, eighteen years old, an Austrian, confined in the Tombs on a charge of larceny, attempted suicide this morning by r, southwesterly | hanging himself to the inside door of his ceil. He had made a rope by tying some of his clothes together, and was almost unconscious when discovered by Keeper Caffery.

He was revived with little difficulty and will be closely watched in future and his cell will be 569 Ballets and a Dendlock Yet.;

[RPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD,]
UTICA. N. Y., Oct. 11.—The Twenty-third District Senatorial Republican Convention, this morning, after taking 569 ballots for the pur pose of nominating a State Senator, adjourned until next Tuesday night.

New York Wishes While Chicago Works.

STANDSTILL. NO UNION THE CRY.

The World's Fair Preliminary Fund Counties and Tammany Will Wage War Temporarily Stopped.

Unt□ the next meeting of the World's Fair Finance Committee no further progress can be made in raising the $5,000,000 guarantee fund by subscription, as was decided by the Committee at a meeting at the City Hall yester-

The subscriptions, amounting to $285,000, made by William Steinway, John Claffin, Judge Hilton, Roswell P. Flower, Isador Straus and Hilton, Roswell P. Flower, Isador Straus and others, stand good, and a meeting is to be called for an early date, when the full $5,000.000 preliminary fund is expected to be made up. However little of progress is being made by the other committees having in charge the World's Fair project, the Committee on Site and Buildings is continually busy, and the work before it is sufficient to keep it the busiest Committee of all until the Exhibition is inangurated. Offers of the property within the location limite! for the site continue to flow in to the Committee.

Committee: for the site continue to how mittee.

H. C. von Post, executor of the estate of William Whitlock, fr., which is located at liverside avene and one Hundred and Tenth street, offers the property for exhibition purposes at a reutal which will pay taxes and assessments on offers the property for exhibition purposes at a restal which will pay taxes and assessments on it.

E. F. Zolhkoffer will allow the use of his three lots on One Hundred and Thirteenth street on equally advantageous terms.

The same terms accorded other owners will suit L. Toplitz, who owns several lots within the area chosen for the site, so he writes the Committee.

For taxes and assessments, together with interest on a $i.,000 mortgage, Thomas H. O'Connor, of 16 Exchange place, offers his lots on One Hundred and Eleventh and One Hundred and Fourteenth streets.

Miss Aria itehan, the actress, owns two lots on One Hundred and Sixteenth street, and through her attorney, Richard M. Henry, profiers their use on as favorable terms as accorded other owners in the neighborhood.

Secretary Foord sent out notices to-day for another meeting of the Site Committee at 3 o'clock next Friday.

The object of the meeting is to further discuss the matter of obtaining property. It is also hoped by the sub-committee to be able at that time to make an accurate estimate of the amount of property which may be obtained by lease, together with the amount of money required for the same, and also the exact area which will require legislative action before its acquirement is assured.

As was espected, the real-estate speculators were very busy after the announcement of the selection of a site for the Fair, and the Committee on Site are smiling at the discommiture of one of them who bought three lots just outside the original site, but which have since been included in and will be condemned for site purposes.

MIKE KELLY BANQUETTED. And the Charlotte Russe Was in the Form of a Soup Tareen. (SPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD. BOSTON, Oct. 11.—Capt. Michael J. Kelly, the ball-tosser, still has many admirers and friends pennant to the Hub.

pennant to the Hub.

This was evinced last evening.
Steward C. W. Bickford, of the Boston Tavern, who has been a warm friend of Kelly, sent to him an invitation to drop into the tavern in the course of the evening.

The invitation was accepted, and in one of the private dining-rooms of the tavern Kelly sat down to a spread as pleasing as ever tickled the palate of man.
Besides the host there were J. A. Fitzsimmons, Ned Perry and John Graham.
Capt. Mike had to smile when the charlotte russe was brought in.
It was made in the form of a vonp tureen.
On the cover was the inscription "Nide, Kelly, slide." and below this on the other side of the tureen were the words, "Where is he?"

SAY THEY WERE DRIVEN TO MUTINY. The Workmen's Side of the Late Riots at

Navassa. (SPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD.) Ballimone, Oct. 11.—The other side of the Navassa riot is told by Jamaica papers brought here to-day on the steamer Pirate from King-

A statement from one of the negro workmen engaged in the uprising declares that the men were driven to violence through the continued abuse and persecution to which they were sub-jected by the overseers.

for Local Offices.

"No union !" is now the cry. It has sounded in the councils of the County Democracy, and the walls of the l'ammany tepes have echoed it.

Chamberlain Richard Croker says that he is not in favor of a union, but he modestly adds that that question will be left to the County Convention, which meets next Tuesday. 'The union which seems most probable," says Mr. Croker, "is one between the County Democracy and the Republicaus. I am informed that such an one has already been made in the Sixth Assembly District, where the Republicans are to be given the Assemblyman and the Counties to take the Alderman. "To avoid the consequences which would in-evitably result when next its delegates apply for

"To avoid the consequences which would inevitably result when next its delegates apply for admission to the State Convention, should the County Democracy units with the Republicans on local nominations. I believe the programme to be for the County Convention of the Counties, which meets on saturday, to fail to nominate until a 'Citizens' ticket is put in the field.

"That ticket I expect them to indorse and then attempt to secure a Republican indorsement of 3.

"They can then say to our demand that they be not admitted to the councils of the party of the State that they did not units with the Republicans, but that the Republicans indorsed their nominees, for which action they should not be held responsible.

"There are many features about these unions which are bad, the principle one being that they frequently foist upon the people candidates whose records are not carefully considered, and who have not the strength or character which they should have.

"Too often improper nominations result from union.

It is an open secret that but two or three of the Gounty Democracy leaders are in favor of a union with Tammany, on any nominations.

The reason for this is said to be found in the little love they bear Gov. Hill for his signing of the Police Justice and other bills which have added to Tammany Hall's power and patronage as well as for his insisting on the nomination of Tabor for Attorney-General.

This expressed opposition to a union by the County leaders was declared by a well-informed Tammany man to be a big case of 'bluff."

"They say they want no union, when the fact is that they'd like overtures from us for one. I don't think they'll receive them, though.

"There isn't a district in the city they can carry, unless it is the Twelfth, and that, they have a bare chance of capturing."

FOUGHT HARD TO DIE.

Lens Steinemann, thirty-one years old, wife of Peter Steinemann, a millinery salesman. threw herself out of a window at 205 East Fourteenth street early this morning after a tremendous struggle with her husband, who in Boston, even if he did fail to bring the vainly tried to save her. She is in Bellevue Hospital, badly injured. Mrs. Steinemann had been out of her mind for some time, owing to family troubles. She has tried to throw herself from the window more than once in her mad fits, and her husband's strength has been nearly worn out by the incessant watching.

Her husband was aroused from sleep at 4 o'clock this morning by a maniacal yell, and saw his wife on the window-sill clutching the clotheslive and about to swing herself off.

He reached the open window with one immp and caught her by both wrists trying to hold her back.
She fought like a demon, yelling murder, fire and police, and dragging him almost out of the window with her.

She swung free from the window-sill at last and hung from the line, her husband still clinging to her arms and shouling for help. None came.

The neighborhood had got used to the insane woman's antics and slept soundly through it all.

The awful struggle for life went on 'ully nee minutes before the man's strength and his grip gave out, and Mrs. Steinemann fell twenty-five leet to the yard.

He was found half fainting in the room, she on the dagging with hip broken and suffering from internal injuries that may prove fatal. The police took her to Bellevue Hospital. HAVE you seen the mammoth package of QUAKER ROLLED WRITE OATS ON the 'L' stations! "."

the Eyes of Thousands. Another and Most Terrible Elec-

Lineman Finks Dies in Ageny Before trical Tragedy. Stricken on the Top of a Pole on

No One Daring to Remove His Seared Corpse from the Wires.

Centre Street.

John Finks, a Western Union lineman, was neinerated at 1 o'clock this afternoon on a live wire on the telegraph pole at the southwest corner of Chambers and Centre streets.

A more thrilling sight, it is safe to say, was never seen in New York. A few minutes before 1 o'clock Feeks climbed the pole to try and locate a break in the wires. He left some fellow-workmen in the street.

He climbed rapidly, and was soon in the midst of the forest of wires.
Suddenly one of the men looked aloft and shouted;: "My God! Feeks has been electrified!"
It was too true.
The lineman was rigid. His legs were across one of the bars of the pole. One hand and arm were outstretched in the sir.
The other hand clutched a wire and was burning.

He climbed rapidly, and was soon in the midst ing.

Even as the gathering crowd looked on, the unfortunate follow's mouth and nostrils belohed forth white smoks.

He was literally roasting to death.

All the time his position was as natural as in

He was literally reasting to death.
All the time his position was as natural as in life.
His wavy brown hair could be seen on his forehead, as his soft white hat rested on the back of his head. His sleeves were rolled up, and the hand and arm pressed against the wire could be seen burning.

The crowd increased until it reached into the thousands.
People watched the sight from every point of vantage, and grew wild because they could do nothing to save the man on the pole.
Meu and women screamed and cried: "Seve him!"
Some one ran to the Mayor's office in order to get him out to give him practical proof of the danger of the electric light wires.
Then a great silence fell on the mob, and the sputtering of the electricity as it entered the man's body and burned his fissh could be plainly heard in the street below.
Minutes passed, and no one dared to climb the pole and aid the man.
Coroner Schultze finally induced two linemen wearing rubber gloves to go up and put a rope around the dead man's body and to lower him to the ground. They had no easy task.
At 1,30 P. M. they began cutting the wire about him, while thousands of excited people thronged the streets watching them.

At 2 o'clock the body was taken down and carried into the fire engine house near by. It was badly burned and the face was charred and black.

WIRES SAFE TO-DAY Mayor Grant Not Well Enough to Fight

the Electrical Companies.

Mayor Grant's war on the unsafe electric light wires in the city was at a temporary standstill this morning. The Mayor was kept at his house this morning by a severe cold, and Private Secretary Crain said he would not be at his office to-day. Expert S. S. Wheeler was angry at the indif-ference shown by the companies to the resolu-tions of the Board, and he set to work on a resolu-tion of the Board, and he set to work on a resolu-tion of the companies in running all their lights last night, and calling upon the Mayor to take some vigorour and decisive action in the matter.

in the matter.

It is possible that to-morrow night all electic lights in the city which come from unburied wires may be cut off.

Expert Wheeler had a conference last night with a representative of one of the companies, and the result was not satisfactory to either side.

and the result was not satisfactory to either side.

The companies say now that they are going to keep on lighting their lamps until the Mayor forces the fighting and compels them to take some action on the defensive.

Meanwhile accidents from the unsafe and imperfectly insulated wires are going risht on, and last night an engineer named William Hart, who has charge of the electrical plant at the National Theatre at 84 Elizabeth street, was knocked insensible by a shock from the lightning current.

Corporation Counsel Clark, when asked this morning what he though the companies could do if Mayor Grant should order their wires to be taken down, said:

"I think the Mayor is perfectly right in his position, and he has all the weight of authority on his side. There is a way of gesting down all the wires that are not properly insulated, but as I am not the legally authorized counsel of the Board it would not be proper for me to discuss the question at the present time."

There was no meeting of the Board of Electrical Control this morning, owing to the Mayor's absence.

MRS. CONNORS STRANGELY MISSING.

[SPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD.] LAWBENCE, Mass., Oct. 11.—The wife of John Conners, of 179 Arlington street, has disappeared strangely.

At 3 o'clock yesterday morning Mr. Connors awoke to find his wife hanging by her hands awose to has all outside the window of their sleeping-room, in the second story.

He thought it a case of nightmare, pulled her back into the room and both retired.

About 4 o'clock he again awoke and found that his wife was missiny.

The door of the room was securely locked inside and diligent search revealed no traces of the woman. All her outer garments were found in their

B-PLUS-ONE-Is said by those who have given them a trial to be the best 5-cent organ on the market; and the fact that they are manufactured by TRUERSES, WITLAND & Co., is a sufficient guarantee of their uniform quality and excellence. Try it.

To Newsdealers.

It would be wise to increase your orders for the SUNDAY WORLD AT ONCE, as there will be an unusual demand for this issue.

